"Dependance Day"

Independence makes me sick.
For a while it just didn't click that I had to be dependant.
I want today to start with no delay,
because today is my dependance day.

Jesus please help me to stand up.
I've tried, I've failed.
I need you Holy Spirit to come and fill my cup right now.
Please show me how to walk in your Spirit,
and your voice I will hear and follow day to day.

Deprivation of his love
can suffocate the soul.
Take a deep breath of his love,
it makes you whole.
I want today to start with no delay,
because today is my dependance day.
