Independence makes me sick.
For a while it just didn't click
That I had to be dependent.
I want today to start with no delay,
Because today is my dependence day.

Jesus please help me to stand up.
I've tried, I've failed.
I need you Holy Spirit to come
And fill my cup right now.

Please show me how to walk in your Spirit,
And your voice I will hear and follow day to day.

Deprivation of his love
Can suffocate the soul.
Take a deep breath of his love,
It makes you whole.
I want today to start with no delay,
Because today is my dependence day.
