Broken glass, Broken glasses, Broken heart,
Torn up memories scattered across the floor, Skinned up knees from crawling, torn up shoes worn down,
This body made for running has fallen to the ground,

Holes in walls, holes in everything (everything), Holes in memories of you (memories of you),
I remember when you were everything.

Those days have no yet passed me (those days have not yet passed me),
Those days have no yet passed me I'm still hanging on,
Those days have no yet passed me (those days have not yet passed me),
Those days will never pass me I'm still hanging on.

This life with you gets harder as it goes (this life gets harder),
One day it's raining the next day has us driving through the snow,
This life with you gets harder as it goes,
I'm getting stronger, standing up the past behind me now.
I'm getting scared, the fire's slowly burning out,
I can't imagine how you're feeling about me now, Softly whisper "sorry...," Gently crying out,
The whisper turns to screaming, this isn't who I wanted me to be!

This life with you gets harder as it goes (this life gets harder),
One day it's raining the next day has us driving through
the snow,
This life with you gets harder as it goes,
I'm getting stronger, I'm standing up the past behind me now.

This life with you gets harder as it goes (this life gets harder),
One day it's raining the next day has us driving through the snow!!!!

This life with you gets harder as it goes,
I'm getting stronger, I'm standing up the past behind
me now.
