Well I've been waiting for this train to come and take me away
Well I can hear around the corner it will be around(?) the ne(?)-next day
Well hey eh eh eh
I've been waiting for this train to come and take me all night
Well I'll be sleeping in the station
I've been busking for donations all right
Yeah all right

Well it don't matter where you are coming from, no matter where you roll,
In the end it's you my friend
it won't be long in your bed, coming home
All right, yeah yeah

Well I've been waiting for this boat to finally reach the shore Well I've been sailing through the night and I've been fishing off this ocean floor I've been waiting for this ship to finally port in the bay So come and all and visit but I ain't coming home to stay, well eh eh eh

It don't matter where you are coming from, don't matter where you roll,
In the end it's you my friend
it won't be long in your bed, coming home Yeah yeah, coming home, hey eh eh eh..

Well I've been gone for so long now I'm finally home
But I won't let this turn into my unescapable dome
So I'm leaving again my friends well it won't be long So don't bother missing me my friends the day that I'm gone Yeaaaaah

No matter where you are coming from, no matter where you roll
In the end it's you my friend

it won't be long in your bed, coming home Coming home

So(?) lots of things(?) that you don't have seen Worth the time and all the pain they pull me through I(?) love to walk all(?) places I've been I love too walk the places I never know
Yeah all right!
All right, now bring this home!

Don't matter where you are coming from, Don't matter
where you roll,
Well in the end it's you my friend it won't be long in your bed
No matter where you are coming from, No matter
where you roll,
In the end it's you my friend
it won't be long in your bed
No matter where you are coming from, No matter
where you roll,
In the end it's you my friend
it won't be long in your bed
No matter where you are coming from, No matter
where you roll,
In the end it's you my friend
it won't be long in your bed, coming home

Well yeaah alright. Wooooo Woooo, alright bring it on home now.
