I've triedÂ... hahaha
Slipping through the cracks on all the sidewalks where we once stood
IÂ'm finding out that everything you said was just another lie...as

We're going under (we're sinking now)
And I can't remember
We're going under
Just when I first digressed

This is the only thing that I have ever loved And IÂ'm holding on to

What I can just hoping
That my hands won't break

Anchor in hand
We're going under (we're sinking now)
And I can't remember when We're going under (I first digressed)

If this is the anthem of what we have done
Then I don't want to be a part... Right now!!!

Take my voice away knowing that IÂ'm not coming again
