First felt the under toe just a few days ago
Like a rug pulled out from under me
And how do you lock eyes with someone who is invisible?
The only thing I know for sure is this peace

I'm staring into the sky, running hard I start to cry

I'm on top of the world
Seeing for the first time
How beautiful You are
Here on top of the world

I remember all the nights I couldn't sleep
All the times I looked over my shoulder
And when you know you're not the one who's made you free
Love like an avalanche knocks you over

Tears rolling down my face, I can't help but say that

I'm on top of the world
Seeing for the first time
How beautiful You are
Here on top of the world

Jesus, You are more than I was ready for

And I'm on top of the world
Seeing, seeing for the first time
How beautiful You are, are Here on top of the

I'm on top of the world
Seeing for the first time
How beautiful You are
Here on top of the world
