Stupid clowns
junkie friends sold me out to paranoia doubt i sold my soul but nothing is gold all i know is the devil is cold everyone wants to take and take anything to live no one wants to contribute anything and give i stole a purse

shot a cop joined the mob
it's much more legit than living career life bored to death
we live in career shit everyone is making their money now open your savings accounts the ideas are all used up the themes are now theme parks
