i move the steel grate across my chest because it's real
but the blood stays in my skin like something else is trapped inside me sitting in traffic on the daily grind but somewhere i got to draw the line what's the point in this fucking rat race i want to shoot myself in the fucking face

media media
think for yourself
media media
they call this wealth?
they feed it to us
media media
and we eat it all up
