

Cut It Out! "Like An Eel"

Visit "Like An Eel" on MotoLyrics.com

Iâ'm wasting away lack of motivation is killing me every hand i shake belongs to an empty face it sinks itsâ' teeth into my neck what happened to my opportunities? i smoked them all away like an eel that slides in secret on these nights when iâ'm not sleeping lying, conniving, creeping, and crawling in faux poetic shit iâ'm drowning pills to kill the static look up and curse the day company loves misery words donâ't do a thing they want me dead and iâ'm giving it to them i canâ't believe i called you someone
