Leading my life where the truth is so far while you polish the cage with golden bars all my life iâ€™ve been fucking up for you never been in a house that was a home the rain came down through the roof and all my life iâ€™m still fucking up for you iâ€™ll drink myself to an early grave whatever it takes to erase the pain you were never there and you never cared now all i need is just a breath of fresh air fuck your friends fuck your family too grow up life ainâ€™t high school you think youâ€™re cool think youâ€™re the shit i donâ€™t need your fucking clique man
