Another fucking excuse even though we told you we're sick taking all your shit.
you've fucked us for the last time, left us without a dime,
now we'll make you pay for going back on your word!
scumlord!
get out of my face.
we'll see who's laughing when this house burns to the
ground.
raise the rent with no warning and give us your sob story?

the days when we'll feel bad for you are through!
try and sell the building cause everything keeps breaking.
your pockets are getting fatter as this roof caves in!
scumlord!
get out of my face.
