"Ill Use My Hatchet"

Your voice is dead, from your last near death
And your tierd scream refuse to stop and breath in your defence
When it's in your frown, like you cried for hours
And the only thing you wannas just to be safe for awhile

And if you end up dead, I will laugh at you
And I will stab you, till you cough up blood
I'll just use my hatchet, I'll just use my hatchet

Your screaming now, and you lost your breath
And the space between life and death is running through your head
And when you try to scream, but you make no sound
And the tears you cry are coming out, and you've never been so scared

And if you end up dead, I will laugh at you
And I will stab you, till you cough up blood
I'll just use my hatchet, I'll just use my hatchet
I will hurt you, no body can save you

Trust me, trust me, don't run away
Just trust me, trust me
Cause I'm just trying to kill with my hatchet,
And I will just cut you and you will just suffer

Your voice is dead, from your last near death
And your tierd scream refuse to stop and breath in
your defence

And if you end up dead, I will laugh at you
And I will stab you, till you cough up blood
I'll just use my hatchet, I'll just use my hatchet
And if you end up dead, I will laugh at you
And I will stab you, till you cough up blood
I'll just use my hatchet, I'll just use my hatchet
