I hear the big black horse in the cherry tree & He's taking us away to dream in la la land...
Were coming in 90 miles fast Luna the Moons rays refelct the drunken preps that guide us towards our prey...
We start to know on the way
Were going to find some weedy rats or dirty mexicans I turned to you as if to say, Run Carmie, there waiting to beat you!

(Chorus)

It's gonna take a lot for Dustin to steal you There's nothing that a hundred natives or more could ever do
God Bless the hatchets down in LaLa Land!
Gonna take the time to kill the people we never killed

Grade six freedom crys out in the night
As it grows restless longing for us to come & sing
We know we must do what's right
As soon as the sun rises we go to melissa cresent to kill cody...
I seek to cut him deep inside, frightened of this thing that I've become

(Chorus)

It's gonna take a lot for Dustin to steal you There's nothing that a hundred natives or more could
ever do
God Bless the hatchets down in LaLa Land!
Gonna take the time to kill the people we never killed

Run Carmie, there waiting to beat you!

It's gonna take a lot for Dustin to steal you There's nothing that a hundred natives or more could
ever do
God Bless the hatchets down in LaLa Land, God Bless the hatchets down in LaLa Land
God Bless the hatchets down in LaLa Land, God Bless
the hatchets down in LaLa Land
Gonna take the time to kill the people we never killed...
