I have tried
To make it on my own
And I have survived
But surviving is no rival
For your love
* now I know that it's true
There is no way I can't be
Without you
Heaven knows that it's true
I can't live in this world
Without you
Time you'll find
Can change your mind
My eyes once could see
Only want now to believe
And thought we've tried
I think we'd better face it
A love like ours
You know you can't replace it
(* repeat)
Without you
(* repeat)
I wonder if there's one chance
It could be
You can't live in this world
