The gun in my hand says i love you dear two times 3 is six ways to say goodbye and i don't know thing it will end here i wanna watch this love die can you speak loud enough for me to hear over the ringing in my ears so scream for me and say what you think I'll never feel so alone as i walk away from you an this dosent feel righth your lips pressed tight to mine il never though it would be like this im wounded by your kiss now everything is so clear not knowing what it is i saw in your eyes but now i knowthe fear was all mine too scared to talk or breathe to scred to see your face perfectly clear now to me it's cold running down the back of my throat the trigger clicks don't think twice, i say goodnight without thinking twice i say goodbye your lips press tight to mine i never though it would be like this im wounded by yuor kiss everything is so clear not knowing what it is i saw in your eyes but now i know the fear was all mine everything is so clear im wounded by your kiss without thinking twice goodnight
