I want a dress, nice and pale
With a hat on the top of the sheer tailored veil
Pink on the sash so it matches the beads of Swarovski glass
I want a day full of love
How lovely
I wanna get married
Gee, how swell that would be
I wanna get married
Wanna be Mrs. S-C-O-T-T

I want a house on a hill
With our own little Jack and Jill
I want a dog in the yard
With a white picket fence and a powder blue car
I want a life full of love
How lovely
I wanna get married
Gee, how swell that would be
I wanna get married
Wanna be Mrs. S-C-O-T-T

I'll make the dinner
He'll pay the bills
I'll pour the coffee
He'll drink his fill
We'll be together
For always and ever
And never be lonely again

And I, I wanna get married
Gee how swell that would
I wanna get married
Wanna be Mrs. S-C-O
Mrs. S-C-O-T
Mrs. S-C-O-T-T
