Have you ever found the one, and gave your heart away?
When you see them you stu-stutter don't know what to say.

Tell me that you feel, the way that I feel,
don't you leave me standing in the dark.
I know that I'm young, but I could be the one,
you could have the keys to my heart.

Something - something 'bout ya, can't let go.
'Cause if you keep me waiting I'll be holding on.
Please don't press the brakes now, I'll lose control.
Somebody come pinch me,

Just tell me I'm not dreaming (In my mind)
I'm not dreaming, (Of you and I)
I'm not dreaming, when I'm wide awake, hope you never change,
so tell me I'm not dreaming.

The star that's on your team, we could never lose.
Paint a perfect thing, boy it's me and you.

Tell me is it real, tell me is it true,
'cause you know I'm always here for you.
Always got your back, no matter where you at,
all you have to do is call my name (oh yeah)

Something - something 'bout ya can't let go.
'Cause if you keep me waiting I'll be holding on
Please don't press the brakes now, I'll lose control.
Somebody come pinch me,

Just tell me I'm not dreaming (in my mind),
I'm not dreaming, (Of you and I)
I'm not dreaming, when I'm wide awake hope you never change,
so tell me I'm not dreaming.

I could close my eyes and fly away, to a place that you're my hero, and then we'll escape.

Where the clouds will fade away, where the rainbow takes it's place,
the stars... will spell your name....

Just tell me I'm not dreaming (in my mind),
I'm not dreaming, (Of you and I)
I'm not dreaming, when I'm wide awake hope you never change,
so tell me I'm not dreaming.
