Midnight falls on the snow-lit trees and as I stand inside I know that I can't watch life through a window my indecision is blocking the door it's like a religion that I never ask for more I might stumble and fall

What's someone like me
doing in a life like this?
I can't see
what someone like me is doing in a life like this slipping back into the past

Sun comes up and streams through the blinds and as I throw my clothes on do my hair wrong stare into my mirror telling myself that everyone falls take the first step that's the trick of it all bounce back like a ball

What's someone like me
doing in a life like this?...

My mind is filled with runaway dreams
I can't wake up
I don't know what it means you see I fell asleep with the television on when I woke up it was gone I read my horoscope to see what's in store I get a little lazy but I want more, I want more

What's someone like me

doing in a life like this?
I can't see
what someone like me is doing in a life like this...
