Woke up this morning and your still on my mind
This gets harder every day

Shared our dreams and places and times
Iâ€™ve said all I can say

I look to my right and thereâ€™s a picture of you
It's on the shelf every time

Look at it and wonder what more I could do
But the truth is I have nowhere to run

You broke my heart and you left it in two
How could you do this to me

I'm wondering now, baby, all alone
I'm a girl with nothing but shattered dreams

If your dreaminâ€™ of me and I'm dreaminâ€™ of you
If your dreaminâ€™ of me and I'm dreaminâ€™ of you
Please let me go on dreaming

If your dreaminâ€™ of me and I'm dreaminâ€™ of you
If your dreaminâ€™ of me and I'm dreaminâ€™ of you
Please let me go on dreaming

Lay my head down and close my eyes
See you in a distant light

It's during the day that I hold back my cries
And pray the day will pass into the night

I see your lips but I can't make out the words
That your speakinâ€™ to me

You say "baby give me just a little more time
Cause we both know this love was meant to be"
