It's never easy to turn back Remembering the times when good times went so fast
The bad would catch up back on you, willing to let go

I've woken up several times, wondering when ever am I going to cry
These tears they just fall like rain would call

It's never easy just to say goodbye, it's never easy to turn back and Tell him why, I've only just realized, it's not easy to say goodbye

These stars they say it all, everytime my eyes close a tear would fall Realizing it burns a hole through my heart, letting you go is The hardest part but I

Only need to show you that I cannot love you the way I used to

It's never easy just to say goodbye, it's never easy to turn back and
Tell him why, I've only just realized, it's not easy to say

I have looked back at what we used to be, the memories the all so easy But realizing that we've faded now, I've got to let you go somehow

It's never easy just to say goodbye, it's never easy to turn back and
Tell him why, I've only just realized, it's not easy to say

Uh uh uh uh ah ah It's never easy yeah uh uh uh ah uh uh uh ah uh uh uh It's never easy to say goodbye
