Honestly,
I didn't mean to cry so hard
But the heartache was pouring in like rain
I didn't mean to show I cared

Honestly,
I didn't mean to laugh so loud
But it just sounds so absurd
To say that you want me, say that you need me
After everything you've done

Really truly,
I didn't mean to hurt you
I just thought that maybe now
We'd have better luck the second time around
It's always better the second time, I hear

Find me in the evening
When you're ready to dance
And I will take you to the places
Where you never thought you'd had a chance
To love, love
Love is all we have
I will run myself in circles here without you

Please believe,
That I tried my best to forget you
But the memories keep flooding back like tears
I didn't mean to fall in love

Sitting her just waiting for this is torture
I'm so glad you're far away
Is that a terrible thing to say?
But I wonder if you're okay

Find me in the evening
When you're ready to dance
And I will take you to the places
Where you never thought you'd had a chance
To love, love
Love is all we have
I will run myself in circles here without you

I will run myself in circles here without you
Oh I tried and tried
And I can't hide from your love
Darling it's too late
To show me your intentions
And I will go to find a way
To get pass all the implications
Every situation, every complication
That we've come from
Love is all we have
I will run myself in circles here without you

Darling love... love
Love is all we have
I will run myself in circles here without you
