Spending all your money
Ain't it funny how the time goes by'
First you start believing
Then you're leaving for no reason
And you're wondering why
So till the morning breaks
Go and make your mistakes
Don't be surprised if your head hurts
Life is for the living,
The forgiven and for leaving town alive

Whisper in the ways
Watching days and moving on
You wake up every Monday then suddenly it's Sunday
And the week is gone
So till the morning breaks
Go and make your mistakes
Don't be surprised at the sunrise
Life is for the living,
The forgiven and for leaving town alive

Oh, do you wonder where it starts
Where it ends
What you find around the bend
Oh, do you wonder where she's from
Where she goes
No one knows
Now and then you wonder
Why you're spending all your money
Ain't it funny how she walks on by'
She had you all believing
Now she's leaving for no reason
And you're wondering why

So till the morning breaks
Go and make your mistakes
Don't be surprised if your heart hurts
Life is for the living,
The forgiven and for leaving town alive

Oh, do you wonder where it starts
Where it ends

What you find around the bend
And oh, do you wonder where she's from
Where she goes
No one knows
Now and then

Oh, do you wonder where it starts
Where it ends
What you find around the bend
And do you wonder where she's from
Where she goes
No one knows
Now and then you wonder

Why life is for the living,
The forgiven and the leaving town alive
Life is for the living,
