(Verse 1):

She don't do it for you anymore (nooo)
She don't rub your back when it's sore (not no more)
She don't make you feel the same (same)
You got a wondering eye
I seen you look when you walk by
And now you wanna know what it's like
If you could be the apple of my eye
You wanna make a change
You wanna come my way
Well I'm waiting here for you

(Chorus):

You had enough of the dark side
So step over the line and get a taste of the sunshine
It's better on my side
It's better on my side, it's better on my side
It's better on my side, 'cause I'm better than her
That silver line around your dark cloud ain't enough
Why would you settle down
Come over for something better
It's better on my side, it's better on my side
It's better on my side, 'cause I'm better than her

(Verse 2):

Gets on your nerves when she comes around
And when she talks, you just turn her out
You fantasize about my lips, about my thighs
And the feeling's getting stronger
And you can't seem to get me out your mind
And now you wanna know what it's like
If you could be the apple of my eye
You wanna make a change
You wanna come my way
I'm gonna be sitting here waiting for you

(Chorus)

(Bridge):

I see ya lookin (see ya lookin)
I see ya lookin (see ya lookin)
Won't you come on over (come on over)

The sun will shine a little brighter (brighter)
if this is where you wanna be
I'm here waitin for ya
(repeat)

(Chorus)
