If I whisper my thoughts would you hear the chanting of my heart phrasing melodies unsung in the dark saying hold me through the night hear the music from my room calling out to you - come home to me soon shadows bellowing duets with the moon singing hold me through the night

hold me through the night

and the water drop in the drain just like the sound it makes you're coming 'round again there's a soft piano in a warm summer's rain playing hold me through the night

hold me hold me through the night

oh you gotta hold me through you gotta hold me through the night
