so you think i'm crazy want to take me away inject me with electric shock i'm not going nowhere hear what i say loud and clear reveal your sly intentions and free my isolation

a second longer say it's alright
a second longer i'll be insane
and what you say
the second i become you fry electricity

gas me till i pass on out run your wires through me weep to ease the tension with your failed philosophies
you will not control me

lost my mind today called me a liar
it was my desire i told them what was wrong but they yeah, they called me a liar why should i care what they say i am not afraid they called me a liar i told them they were wrong still so i set 'em on fire what your gonna saya second longer say it's alright
