Calling California,
Is there anybody home.
Hello California,
Would you please pick up the phone.

I wanna say I love you,
but I'm a million miles away.
I am thinking of you,
I miss you and LA.

[chorus]
For you and you alone,
I'll lay my monsters down.
We'll watch the sun come up over California

For you and you alone,
I'll find my way back home.
I love you like the sun loves California,

My California..

I have made you suffer,
Left you waiting in the rain.
While I was chasing demons
Through the desserts of my pain.

But you know me better than the poison in my veins,
So my love remember when
God forgets my name.

[chorus]

I wanna feel the ocean breeze,
And let the waves wash over me.
I'll leave my winters in the sand
Hey California..

[chorus]
