I look at the sea and I look at the sky and I close my eyes and it blows my mind Cause I find— a differentiation

What could it be that's stuck in my side that's beggin' me to change my mind
And unwind— a differentiation

Chorus:

You know it really took somebody to make me see Somebody special...
Somebody close to me
You know I don't need no one tellin' me the way to be 'Cause I know I live my life a little differently I keep up my defenses 'cause I know I can't part with the formative constructions within' my heart I know I won't let go

What can I say when there comes a day when I learn to play another way far away...
A differentiation

Chronic break intoxicated makes it less blatant but I still feel— a differentiation

Chorus

When'll it be that we agree on how things should really be cause I see— a differentiation What'll it take for me to say that I'll follow you on the path you take 'cause I feel— a differentiation

Chorus
