Well I can't stop this feeling, from coming over me
Should I love ya, should I hate ya, I just don't know It's quite a mystery

Well you lead my heart to believe that we could happily be
And I poured my heart out to ya, and you refused to see
And when you did not see, you affected me In a way that blocks my heart from anyone that comes to me

Chorus:

Well I don't break hearts with my presence, or get my drinks for free Though you'll never see me walk on water, or ever part the sea
But I loved ya and I told ya some time ago
But now I know ya

Well I can't help but see you out of the corner of my eye
I perceive beneath your innocence, what a dangerous creature
Should I love ya, should I hate ya or should I run Should I run for safety

Chorus

(Musical Interlude)
