Flamin' youth got the Hollywood blues.
Cadillac black y' can't refuse, no.

Close your eyes and they're all the same.
So roll the dice and play the game

All Night Long. Rockin' the Rolls.
All Night Long. Out doin' D'Stroll.
All Night Long. You still our payin' the toll, honey?
All Night.

A Russian dame playin' love roulette.
I don't know why, but I can't forget her.
She was a slumber party debutante.
Don't look at me, 'cause you're All I Want.

All Night Long. Out rockin' the Rolls.
All Night Long. You're out doin' D'Stroll.
All Night Long. You still out payin' the toll, honey?
All Night.

I often wonder what became of that girl...
Y'know, I bet it gets pretty cold 'n' lonely
On her side of the world.

I might have to write that girl a letter
'N' tell her to bring back what it was that she Took with her when she went away.

I'll say, "Hey, Honey. Give it to me..."

All Night Long.
