Do you like it
The rain and the moon and the sun
Are spelling your name
Although you promised me it would be
Only a game
Sometimes you lead me on
Just cause you need someone
Sometimes I am the one you want
Sometimes you let me win
Sometimes I let you in
Sometimes Im so in love with you
And you keep on playing
Spinning me around, spinning me around
And I keep on staying
Spinning me around, spinning me around
I say:
Do you like it?
Getting all exited
Show and hide it
Tell me, does it feel good?
Sometimes I just pretend
Sometimes you understand
Sometimes you're tight beneath my skin
Sometimes I fear you too
Or I don't care bout you
The room is tumbling all around
The rain and the moon and the sun
Are spelling your name
Although you promised me it would be
Only a game
