I was blind but now I finally see
Waiting for a love to rain right down on me
Now I look around and Im aware
That I have got a lot of love to spare
Yesterdays are yesterdays for sure
Those yesterdays shant bother me no, no more
Takes a lot of hard times to be free
But all these heavy times still haven't crushed me
Love is on my way
I feel it coming, bits and pieces
Love is on my way
I feel it raining down on me
Love is on my way
I feel it coming, bits and pieces
Love is on my way
Now I do all things the way I feel
Im just trying, I just try to be real
Always I am fighting with my pride
And everything is depending on that insight
I believe that I will have my day
I will seize it and Im gonna make it stay
Don't you dare to tell me it's not true
I wont let you turn my red into blue
