I am the one
Who believes in all that you say
I am the one
Who never wants to define herself
I am the one
Who's parallel, upfront, behind
I am the one
Paddling like crazy through the night

Refine, old time, colourblind
Big sign, do time, doesn't rhyme
A lot, to much, standing tall
And I'm crying in the valley:
"I shall never, ever fall!" and

People are people
And I feel so strong
People are people and I'm Going on

I am the one
Who stirs it up everytime
I am the one
Who never know how close she is
I am the one
Who'd rather be dead than confess
I am the one
Trying to be good, wanting to be bad and so on

Excess, temptress, big mess
Phoney, lonely, it's a test
Be still my heart, don't you fail
And I'm crying on the stagefloor:
"I will always prevail!" and

I'm going on
