sun is setting fire to the sky tonight lucky are the ones who are not alone lovely boy walked me home from the bar tonight I love his smile
when he plays the guitar I'm saying;

Â«play me the song that your father taught you fill me with peace
because I need it badÂ»
oh, wonderful sunset strikes me deaf and blind and I'm so relieved; there's a life after him he was young and promised me the world, you know but inside I knew it wouldn't be every goodbye is leading to a new hello now look at me - with mister T I'm singing;

play me the song that your father taught you
fill me with peace
because I need it badÂ»
oh, wonderful sunset strikes me deaf and blind and I'm so relieved; there's a life after.....

I still enjoy my sunsets and sunrises too
keep sitting here beside me and play play me through the night play me through the day
