I was the painter of pictures
You cherished and loved
I was the princess they all tried to please,
And never got enough

I never took it for granted, not a single day
If I could, I would
Not change a single phrase

I'll make the rain begin
As if it never stops
I'll make it flood away the ground under us
And make a water world out of here
And you're so content just to be
And you're so content just to be
It all starts and ends with me

New York to Paris
And hotels and limos and planes
Twenty-four seven of telling the truth,
Unable to explain

I never took it on lightly, not a single day
And if I could, I never would Change these crazy ways

I'll make the rain begin
As if it never stops
I'll make it flood away the ground under us
And make a water world out of here
And you're so content just to be
And you're so content just to be
It all starts and ends with me

I feel you
I'm near you
Stay, stay

I'll make the rain begin
As if it never stops
I'll make it flood away the ground under us
I'll make the rain begin

As if it never stops
I'll make it flood away the ground under us
And make a water world out of here
And you're so content just to be
And you're so content just to be
It all starts and ends with me
