it's like a war zone, we fighting for love in the ring it's like a war zone, who's gonna help you to stand cause i ain't trying to lose on your knees before you do anything say a prayer, you're about to rock don't forget, strap up your shoes strain grab your tea and that you're out, ah straight out of bed, you duck and cross by you don't wanna die, you stay â€¦ so when the fire try to stay alive but all you really can do it's make it through the night cause it's like a war zone, fighting for love in the ring

cause i ain't trying to loose, but everybody's here somebody's gotta lose, cause somebody's gotta win it's like a war zone

some live you sing some die, you sing some make it through but something ain't right you gotta earn times, you gotta earn scores and at the end of the road it don't look far but when you look around and see you're on your own you wanna retreat but you're in way too deep you saw your giant â€¦ to maintain the fight when all you really can do is make it through the night

cause i ain't trying to loose, but everybody's here

so with blood and tears on the feel when all is down i'll be the last one standing, the endless sun with all my heart on line, all that i am and if i'm standing alone, at least i am up in this war zone, fighting for love in the ring

cause i ain't trying to loose, but everybody's here
war zone, fighting for love in the ring
cause i ain't trying to loose
