There's a fine line between to use and to spend There's a fine line between being important and impotent
Pull off my pants, lean against the wall
Roll my eyes; I cannot come at all..
As common as - a long stretched limousine
As common as - a glossy magazine
As common as - the places I've been seen
As common as - as common as
A 1000 nights a 1000 days
Are bitter pills time can't erase
When I'll be able to walk, and not scare anyone
When no news is bad news, if that day will ever come
As common as ...
As heavy as bad luck, as cold as snow
As common as: A T.V. show
The way of getting the fame
The money, and the girl
As common as - the way you want the world!
As common as...
