"Candybar"

When the day goes into itself
And into my veins
And your hands are caught with mine
You are in my veins
A breeze in the curtains of time
Silhouettes of people in line
Yeah, while the chill wind blows
You're in my veins
Attacks and strategies are new Rearranging my attitudes to you
Yeah, I fear that things aren't as good as I hoped Yeah, I hear through the phone, that you sound so remote
No, I don't cry - it's just a candybar stuck in my throat
I just choked - Yeah, I just choked
I'm liquid - whenever you're near
I'm in your veins
Not the same alone so I fear..
I'm in your veins
So strong that you have no wish
You're safe from enemies
But I know where you go
I'm in your veins
Attacks and strategies...
Yeah, when you said it - you didn't mean today
Surely you said it - but, you meant yesterday
Some other time you said, jokingly,
The hope in me - awoke in me..
Choke - hey, I just choked
Yeah, I fear...
