Right now no song on the radio could be too stupid for my heart
Wind me up and let me walk...
I've got no strategy but to suck up the sear and tear the earth apart
Man like dog can be taught not to talk..
Yeah, those who remember me as half good company
As a man who saved himself through irony
- Don't tell me anything - if I hear a secret - I'll burst Don't tell me anything - unless you wanna hear the worst
I'll never tell anyone what they haven't already heard
Don't tell me anything - if I smell a secret: I'll burst...

My tongue just wanna get rid of the truth - yeah, it's one big misery
And then right here, where silence's king It goes against the grain of who I thought I was A bird drops in and I start to sing
I bump into furniture and step on peoples feet
And I say the things I shouldn't say to those I meet..
So don't tell me anything - if I hear a secret - I'll burst Don't tell me anything - unless you wanna hear the
worst
I'll never tell anyone what they haven't already heard
Don't tell me anything - if I smell a secret: I'll burst...

Yeah, those who remember me as half good company
As a man who saved himself through irony
- Subtleties... It's a mean attack of honesty !
- Don't tell me anything - unless you wanna hear the
worst
I'll never tell anyone what they haven't already heard
Don't tell me anything - if I hear a secret - I'll burst
- Yeah, don't tell me anything - if I smell a secret: I'll burst...
