Mr. Smarty held a party - Yeah, and noone came then his brother
Held another - Guess what? - Yeah, just the same!
Still so common, no matter how hard they try.
Eat the dead; but leave the wounded... Yeah!
I can take it, and I don't take it personally
The eye turned inwards of the inside world - way too many parties &
Way too many pals - Hey, I could be falling, yeah! But,
I'm fine
And if I should roll over - I don't mind - I'll need a coca-cola
And they don't hear me. So they don't answer back

Listening for the cry to match the cry inside of me
Levis & Lee - they're never as blue as me
Just came to tell you, I got pissed on my way here
Letting go of all stern warnings, yeah - and it's weird Trying to be different - not a chance - get back on my quadrant
And they don't hear me, so they don't answer back
They don't listen, so they don't answer back Yeah, they don't hear me, so they don't answer back
