Wheels turns inside you
When are they turning up the light
You're ready and empty
Ready for sound advice
In need of directions
A way out, just one good
Cuz your baby is leaving
Yeah what are you going to do

The place of the heart, are you afraid to go there?
In a house with no doors, you're going nowhere
Your pain is old, but love is new
The place of the heart - who's gonna take you?

You know what the truth ain't?
It's the words in your mouth
See the truth dear
Is what's happening all around
Gotta show mercy
Everybody's taking turns
Show some forgiveness
Cuz you don't know how they hurt

The place of the heart, are you afraid to go there?
In a house with no doors, you're going nowhere
Your pain is old, but love is new
The place of the heart - who's gonna take you?

The place of the heart
Are you afraid to go there?

In a house with no doors
No doors to your soul
Who's gonna open
The doors to your soul?
