Hahaha YEAH

Baby I got em'

You know they mad cuz im cuz im from the burbs trick
They never ever seen a nation kill these verses
You want a problem
start it up (vroom vroom)
start it up (vroom vroom)
start it up (vroom vroom)
Start it up

Skinny guy asian grinning wide little chinky eyed every line is true I get it straight no invisiline
You running it im at the finish line kicking rippin rymes Im Michael Jordan you just played the game through scotty pippins eyes
Your second place I burn through ya don't try to play cuz second place would be the first loser
I think I'm Big Meech Larry Hover
Dangerous like that triangle in Bermuda
You say you make my style
Maury show your not the father
Eating rappers like a im pacman waka waka
We're all fly still high like a rhasta fara
I'm the king so bow bow but I aint Flocka Flocka
So come box it with the champion and put em up
I tell my haters like my ex's you aint good enough
Its D-Prizzy if you aint 'bout it then look it up
Have your girl want smoosh smoosh I like snooky brah
The cameras on them so these fakers try to babble mouths
All they do is talk money like their cash is out Im still sexy with my money at a set amount
You try to stunt with only fifty in your bank account
I keep a nice girl simple chick hot and cute
Beauty skin deep but her beauty is to the molecule Bursting in im perfect plus im hurtin yall rappers
Got the city on my back like my jerseys on backwards
My words are all stured im hurtin yall bastards

And Im still lyrical and I don't curse it up Dealin with the matters ah my hands are blasten faster
Your girl is like disaster my girl is a kim kardasher
I fathom me lasting past all these rappers who think they're relavent

These rappers fade away but my career will never end
You got your points so I'm the better friends gentlemen
Killed it on the you tube and I aint got a penny spent
So wait let me vent people think I've changed riiiiiiight
The hair grew but listen people im the same guuuuy
Who told all you rappin to stay the same hiiiiigh
Whos the best im the answer AIIII
But whos the best out, prototype, test out
All you dudes are X'ed out Canceled im a threat now
We got the best sound killin from a far planet
And stop talking earth language im from mars DAMNIT
Rockstar status that means we are lavish
With out a penny in my pocket but a large fan based
You on the map we are on a large atlas Swag sharp at it like a large cactus
I skip you rappers like classes
I got a large absense
Im strategic I killed the game with a large tactic You're a little kitten and im a large mammoth
So in this game you can say im large at it
So start it up now lets get plenty hate
Wheres the beat im looking for it accelerate
So start it up now lets get plenty hate
Wheres the beat im looking for it accelerate

You know they mad cuz im cuz im from the burbs trick
They never ever seen a nation kill these verses
You want a problem
start it up (vroom vroom)
start it up (vroom vroom)
start it up (vroom vroom)
Start it up

You know they mad cuz im cuz im from the burbs trick
They never ever seen a nation kill these verses
