"Unbroken"

The pieces of my life were blown in the wind
You caught them in your hands and blew them back again
Now I'm falling to place
Where I see your face

[Chorus:]

I'm unbroken, you put me back together
You took what you found and turned me around
And made me again
I'm unbroken, I hope that its forever
I don't cry any more, cause you walk through the door
Finally I'm alright

You found me down in a doubt
Staring in a wishing well, oh, yeah yeah
Gave me the strength to call out from-under need my shell
And now I walk in the sun cross the world I've become.

[Chorus]

You turn the keys set me free from myself
I fall apart each time that we said good bye
But when I'm by your side

I'm unbroken...
I'm unbroken...

[Chorus]

Finally I'm alright... [3x]
