Well love love love is a one way train comes on gentle as a hurricane it's got p.a.i.n. written all the way through from where i'm set looking over at you and it takes all my might and it'll take all my day and if it wants me to come well i know i'm gonna stay and it's all we've got to leave and if you take a drop of water from a bucket would not know

love's gonna fill it again well love love love will make truth from a lie and i don't want to live how i don't want to die so give me one kiss to build a dream on gonna stay with me through the changing seasons and it's all we've got to bring and if you take a drop of water...
