If we should meet again on some darkened street
Pack in it all and heed to a call
Beat a drum to decide on a sketch for design
Can you see to the light, bare winter night

Wipe out the sun form your eyes, that vicious sky
Wipe out the sun form your eyes, that vicious sky
Sees the way you are, fell the way you move
So deep, so cool, the sum of it all
So deep, so sweet, see you again, see you again

Once you fell something real let me know, let it show
I could be your honey and let it go, there it goes
And if you should need me through someone else's eyes
And if into me you see more than disguise

I come down to your knees and if ears could speak
Well I like to think what they'd say to inspire
Your sweetest desire, since I first met you
I found the love I lost, it's just like you, just like you
You move, so sweet, so cool, the sum of it all
So sweet, so deep, see you again, see you again

If we should meet again in some darkened room
I hope to my soul that it could be soon
Beat a path to my side, a sketch for design
Can you see to the light, bare winter night

And wipe out the sun form your eye, that vicious sky
Wipe out the sun form your eyes, some sleep to lie
See the way you are, feel the way you move
So deep, so cool you burn through it all

It's the shape of your hand, the tone I understand
And since I first met you I found the love I lost
It's just like you, just like you
See you again, see you again, again
Again, again, again, see you again
