Rare saffires glowing they light up the night
Two candles were burning with warm dancing light
Pair of honey nutmeg I looked in her eyes
Lost in a daydream of blue winter skies

Eyes so lovely clouds cease to rain
Whoa whoa eyes so lovely they ease all my pain
Whoa whoa eyes so lovely blue diamonds from coal
Eyes so lovely windows to her soul

Glances of passion unmeasured desire
Scared and uncertain she faces the fire
Twinkling like starlight she looks out at the unknown
Vision from heaven she'll no be alone

Eyes so lovely clouds cease to rain
Whoa whoa eyes so lovely they ease all my pain
Whoa whoa eyes so lovely blue diamonds from coal
Eyes so lovely windows to her soul

Rare saffires glowing they light up the night
Two candles were burning with warm dancing light
Pair of honey nutmeg I looked in her eyes
Lost in a daydream of blue winter skies

Eyes so lovely clouds cease to rain
Whoa whoa eyes so lovely they ease all my pain
Whoa whoa eyes so lovely blue diamonds from coal
Eyes so lovely windows to her soul
Eyes so lovely windows to her soul
