Keep the people happy and blind.
Censoring the truth should be a crime.
Jack up the ratings, they're just another committee.
Plastic world just made to look pretty.
Chorus:
"cause we're going down to girl scout camp.
We're going to tell you what's best for you.
Filtering your world and your mind,
Under their thumbs...now you're blind.
Censoring your lives is a social plot.
Be a consumer, sit at home and rot.
They just won't accept reality.
They'll just let us see what they want us to see.
Chorus:
"cause we're going down to girl scout camp.
They're gonna tell us what's best for us.
Censoring your world and your mind.
Under their thumbs, now you're blind.
CENSORED!!
Keep the people happy and blind.
Censoring the truth should be a crime.
Jack up the ratings, just another committee.
It's a plastic world, it's so damn shitty.
Girlscout camp!
Girlscout camp!
Girlscout camp!
It's a girlscout camp!
