Must have seen a thousand sunsets
Staring out this very window
But no nothing ever looked so bright,
Lit up the sky, to my eyes
The way it does tonight

Must have heard a million lovesongs
Coming through my radio
But there never was a melody
That got to me, set me free
Not until tonight

It's a beautiful thing
When love gives you wings
Makes you believe you can fly
Like birds when they sing
Or flowers in spring
The way you move, the way you touch,
You're loving me
It's a beautiful thing

Every colour in my rainbow
Every note on my piano
Every time I memorize, I fall so hard, I come apart
And I can barely breathe

So keep doing what you're doing
I want you closer than my shadow
Cuz when it's just the two of us
I'll take a look, it's just too much
It makes me wanna scream, eeeaaam

It's a beautiful thing
When love gives you wings
Makes you believe you can fly
Like birds when they sing
Or flowers in spring
The way you move, the way you touch,
You're loving me
It's a beautiful thing

Like a shooting star
Lighting up the dark
Like I'm everywhere that I was born to be
That's how I feel baby
When you are
Loving me

It's a beautiful thing
When love gives you wings
Makes you believe you can fly
Like birds when they sing
Or flowers in spring
The way you move, the way you touch,
You're loving me
It's a beautiful thing (x2)

Like the birds when they sing

The way you move, the way you touch,
You're loving me

(Chorus fade out)
