I don't wanna make you feel uneasy
But I'd really like to spend the night
I know it's not an easy question
And I'm not gonna ask you twice

But the thing we do together in the daytime
Always leaves me feeling oh so high
But something's missing in the morning
Something's missing in the night

CHORUS:

We're ordinary people
With ordinary lives
With the change to be so beautiful
We could be beautiful tonight

Well, I'm giving up my lucky numbers
I'll never be a millionaire
There must be something in this spell I'm under Cause I don't seem to care

And the moon is getting oh so high
Making patterns on the walls
And baby, we could be so much closer
With the coming of the dawn

CHORUS

Baby, how long?
How long has it been?
It feels like we have waited, waited for all of our lives
Waited for tonight

CHORUS 2x

We're ordinary people
Just ordinary people
With ordinary lives
