Never be alone
Someone else to hold me
Wouldn't make me cry
Wouldn't let me down
They say letting go
Would solve all my problems
And take away the sorrow somehow

I never wanna leave him lonely
I'd have to live a lie
Cause I couldn't let him down and say goodbye

No, I still believe
I know we could
Hold on to love
I know somehow we could
Make live feel good
I know we would
Love everyday

Know I could
Know I could baby

How could I ever leave
With all we've been sharing
Don't I still believe
Still wanna try
Even though I've been hurt before
My heart's been feeling homeless
I know I'm still his woman

I never wanna leave him lonely
I'd have to live a lie
Cause I couldn't let him down and say goodbye

No, I still believe
I know we could
Hold on to love
I know somehow we could
Make live feel good
I know we would

Love everyday

And we'd hold on closely
As we never have to wonder
And we never wonder why
Cause love would be so bad to us
If only we could give it a try

I still believe
I know we could hold on to love
I know somehow we could make live feel good
And I know we could love everyday
I still believe
I know we could hold on to love
I know somehow we could make live feel good
And I know we would love everyday

And I couldnt let him down and say goodbye
