

D.R.I. "They Don' Care"

Visit "They Don' Care" on MotoLyrics.com

I got a letter in the mail just the other day
Opened it up, this is what it had to say:
"Wouldn't you please give us the pleasure
Of having you at our table tonite?

From, the donner family"

We've been hungry for such a long time

And we've eaten our dogs and rawhide

We've got half of our family on ice

They would not want the rest of us to die

They would not want the rest of us to die

They don't care

They would not have us starve to death

We're so cold

They don't care

I'm sure that they wouldn't mind

It's so bad

Half of us are snow blind

It's too late now, we can never go back

We can make up for the protein we lack

Four days of no food have left us all weak

I feel like I can't stand on my own two feet

My own two feet, my own two feet

We've been waiting for such a long time

For some word of help or some sign

That someone's coming to our rescue

Until then, we'll do what we have to

Until then, we'll do what we have to

They don't care

They would not have us die this way

It's like this

We have to find some food today

They don't care

They knew what we were going through

They don't care

This is what it's come to

We never felt like we could really do it

Now we are just thankful we all lived through it

We ate those people because we were hungry

Yeah, we're survivors of the donner family

The donner family

We've been hungry for such a long, long time
And we've eaten our dogs and rawhide
We've got half of our family on ice
They would not want the rest of us to die
They would not want the rest of us to die
They don't care
They would not have us starve to death
We're so cold
They don't care
I'm sure that they wouldn't mind
It's so bad
Half of us are snow blind
I got a letter in the mail just the other day
Opened it up, this is what it had to say:
"wouldn't you please give us the pleasure
Of having you at our table tonite?
From, the donner family"
The donner family
The donner family
